

Iota News

Kansas State University

Kansas Iota of Phi Kappa Theta

Fall 2014

Brothers Prepare for Homecoming, Paired with G Phi, Sig Ep

Phi Kappa Theta is paired with the ladies of Gamma Phi Beta, and the men of Sigma Phi Epsilon for Homecoming 2014.

Preparation has begun, as the float has been mostly pomped, and other events are being practiced.

Brothers are excited to welcome Alumni back into the house, and show off some great house improvements on the exterior.

Crushed rock bed have replaced mulch beds around the house, the arches and front porch has been painted, and a porch swing was added.

President Schultz, Dean Bosco to Speak

Phi Kap will welcome speakers, Kansas State Univ. Dean Pat Bosco and President Kirk Schultz. Brothers are excited to welcome Alumni back into the house, and show off some great house improvements on the exterior.

Both of these speakers follow Sarah Barr, the K-State attorney for students who spoke on September 18th (pictured below).

On September 24th, Dean Bosco spoke to the chapter, and on October 8th, brothers will welcome President Schultz. The men of Phi Kap hope to learn life and career preparation from these speakers and become better leaders.

Sarah Barr speaks September 18th following a formal dinner

Phi Kap Welcomes 15-Man Pledge Class

After summer recruitment, the chapter found themselves in a tough spot as only 7 new members had signed on. However, following the activities fair the first week of classes, the men of Phi Kap made a push in recruitment and were able to sign 8 additional members, bringing the total to 15 for the fall associate member class.

With a total of 39 members in the chapter, Phi Kap has reached its largest membership in the past 5 years. Thirty-six members live in the house, while three new members are out-of-house pledging. Out-of-house pledges are required to move into the house within a year of joining and are not initiated until they move in.

Phi Kaps are looking to sign 10 more members for the spring, and have transitioned recruitment so there are two recruitment chairs. Brothers are thrilled by the recent growth, and the future looks very bright.

Associate members gathered in the formal living room following their pinning.

New, Updated Website Unveiled

This Fall, over 800 high school seniors looking to join greek life will be browsing through all of the 24 fraternity websites and picking which five chapters they like the best.

Built through Squarespace.com, the website offers a clean, sleek and attractive design.

Visit the URL ksuphikaps.com to check it out!

The website features a large image of the chapter's building with the letters 'Φ', 'K', and 'Θ' prominently displayed. The text "PHI KAPPA THETA" is written across the building. Below the building, the text "Kansas Iota Chapter" is visible. At the bottom of the page, there is a banner with the text "The home page of the new website. URL ksuphikaps.com" and the Phi Kappa Theta crest.